Legal

Since 1929, thousands of legal professionals at some of the largest firms in North America have relied on AnswerNet. You can rely on our agents to pick up the phones promptly, accurately take messages and quickly deliver them to the right people.

AnswerNet's agents will act as an extension of your team. We will work with you to develop scripting so that calls are handled to your specifications.

Our contact center agents can serve as your virtual receptionist, patching calls or passing them into voicemail for easy retrieval. Our agents can also send your messages via warm transfer, email, SMS text and fax. You can call-forward any number using as many phone lines as you need.

With multiple call centers throughout the United States and Canada, you can rest assured that AnswerNet's can answer your calls.

Whether you need an answering service for a small, local practice, or require call center experience and expertise for a class action lawsuit, AnswerNet's call center services for the legal industry provide the staff, experience and customizable options to meet and exceed all your needs.
