

Virtual Receptionist

Stay in touch – anytime, anywhere.

A flexible, cost-effective way to manage your office communications.

answerNet

Hiring just one full-time receptionist can easily cost over $2800/mo. in wages & benefits. Not to mention rent for office space and equipment. If you're looking for an affordable alternative, a Virtual Receptionist may be the answer.

Using a remote secretary, you can minimize staffing and facilities requirements and lessen risks of unauthorized access into your buildings. What's more, our experienced, friendly agents triage and direct calls, as well as call patch/warm-transfer calls to your home, office, cell or even voicemail.
